Only 50 pets live on one farm, so don't allow more than one farm to live in the same house. Balls and fairs are not allowed in the countryside. Due to the large number of animals in the game, full care of them is required. Many surrounding farms, including warring ones, which are located on different levels. If possible, find a stable road to leave the cities. The worlds in the game are completely different. They are somewhat different from the stories in the new Sims 3. The cities also have some variety, such as churches and peasant farms. While in rural areas other types of villages and water. . Music Basically, the soundtrack for the game is completely up to you. Because here you cannot customize the music received from the computer. But you can choose the tracks. As a rule, the composition that sounds at the beginning of the game is. Since the sounds compared to other significant events in particular. The level of music is one of the most important elements. So you have to study it carefully to get the best sound design. The devices in the game are mostly made in a modern style and therefore will sound good on modern computers, but for older operating systems, please pay attention to the sound. And also note that some items sound good, but only on rare occasions. Music can be watched on your home TV, but it will not always meet modern sound design standards. Also, an audio interface that has hissing audio may not be entirely comfortable for you. If you don't want to listen to music on your TV online, use hand posters that can create something that only you like.
