The first major release from EA SPORTS, FIFA introduces a brand new ball physics engine, improved animations, real player models, new goal celebrations, enhanced lighting, and a host of other refinements to make the next-generation of football a deep and authentic experience for fans and players alike. Gameplay is available for the Xbox One, Xbox 360, PS4, and PC. Those who preorder FIFA 22 will receive the “FIFA 22 @YourCourt” #MyClub Edition, an exclusive controller, and wallpapers for each console on which they played. If you pre-order FIFA 22, you will also be awarded early access to the beta test, so you can play the game and provide feedback for the final product.

The beta test will take place prior to the game’s launch, in March 2017. You can pre-order FIFA 22 here. You also can view the demo here. EA SPORTS has launched a FIFA Ultimate Team companion app, which will give players access to their entire collection of real-life players, build-a-team and create custom customizations of their jerseys. FIFA Ultimate Team Companion app is available for iPad, iPhone and iPod touch. It allows for the discovery of players, generating customized teams and saving them for future play. The app also features special guest content, such as mystery rewards from FIFA Champions like Lionel Messi. In a new update, FIFA Ultimate Team iOS app will now enable players to earn FIFA Ultimate Team points while playing FIFA Ultimate Team matches. This means you can earn points while you play the game, and then transfer those points to a new FIFA Ultimate Team store anytime! The iOS version of the app is now available on the App Store. FIFA Mobile is available for FREE on the App Store on iPhone, iPad and iPod touch devices. FIFA Mobile is a free-to-play mobile soccer game that blends the popular and traditional FIFA gameplay with one-touch controls. FIFA Mobile makes use of one touch controls, which lets players create moves with just one touch, and make plays at the press of a button. The game has a variety of teams from different world regions with the full rosters of 22 players, two coaching touchline advisors for a total of 44, two stadium advisors with a total of 60 teams, free training sessions, online matches, unlimited seasons, the ability to play to other players around the world, and more. Conway: 'Never said former Sec had bad heart health' The Trump administration on Sunday denied comments made by Kellyanne Conway in which she said in reference to former Sec of State Hillary Clinton's health, "She's tough as nails." "I have never seen someone work so hard. I have never worked as hard," Conway told Fox News' Special Report Saturday, adding that Clinton "never gave up, she never gave in," when it came to facing political adversaries. (WATCH: Conway denies report Trump stayed up all night watching SNL) Trump himself made a similar comment on Saturday, when he said Clinton was too weak to handle the job of president, reports the Hill. "She's going to be going to a very poor part of the country," Conway said, expressing concern over a hot and humid Sept. 9 rally in Mississippi. "It's going to be hot. This is the last thing you need in your last rally for this campaign, unless of course you're an actual doll, like the one that goes in a Cabbage Patch Kid or something." Fellow Fox News personality Brian Kilmeade then asked whether Conway said Clinton had bad heart health. "She's as tough as nails," Conway responded. "I had a great meeting with her a couple of months ago. Here's what I said: 'She's a very resilient person.'" "She's tougher
