Register your family. I am a 13 year old girl who loves to play basketball. I know that i have a lot of rough edges but that is all i am. I try to be nice to everyone and get along. I am very outgoing. I love to have fun. I have no real friends because i am not really nice to people. But if i am nice and out for a walk on the street or something. Then i have a lot of people to talk to. I like to play all sorts of sports that are good for my health, and i have even learnt how to skate. So if you want to know anything or get to know me, drop me a message! :D The following people said "Hello!" because they enjoyed reading the diary:[CT evaluation of the preoperative joint contracture following total hip arthroplasty]. Our purpose is to evaluate the efficacy of CT evaluation of the preoperative joint contracture following total hip arthroplasty (THA). Three-dimensional CT measurement of the hip joint was carried out in 12 cases following THA, in order to evaluate the preoperative joint contracture. Preoperative CT images and corresponding CT images at six months after THA were correlated with the results of clinical examination for femoral neck fracture and prosthetic loosening of the stem. CT measurement could demonstrate a significant correlation between the degree of the joint contracture and the joint space. The evaluation of the hip joint contracture by CT was useful in both the management of postoperative complications and the selection of prosthetic design. Ballyconneely GAA Club Ballyconneely GAA Club (often referred to as Ballyconneely) is a Gaelic Athletic Association club located in Stradbally, County Laois, Ireland. The club colours are red and black. Ballyconneely is a community sports club which plays Gaelic football and hurling in the Dublin Junior A and C competitions. History The first mention of a football team in Ballyconneely was in 1894, though the earliest newspaper report of an All-Ireland Final was
